The Honorable
The Secretary of Labor
Washington 25, D. C.

Dear Mr. Secretary:

Thank you for your letter of 28 July 1955 inviting a representative of this Agency to participate in the Tenth Annual Federal Safety Conference in Chicago on 17 and 18 October 1955.

I share your desire to stimulate interest in doing a better safety job and thus reduce the frequency and cost of accidents in the federal service. To this end, I have directed my Acting Safety Officer, [redacted], to attend this Conference. [redacted] attended the Ninth Annual Federal Safety Conference last year and found it most helpful in performing his safety duties and is looking forward with enthusiasm to the Tenth Conference.
